FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

McCree Completes New Amsoil Distribution Center for McCraney in John Young Business Park

Orlando, FL/December 9, 2014- McCree General Contractors has completed construction on 13,727 square feet of industrial space for McCraney Property Company in John Young Business Park to become a new distribution center for Amsoil.

McCree's tenant improvement projects at John Young Business Park, with McCraney, includes a three-project portfolio totaling 163,727 square feet of shell space converted into distribution centers for FedEx, Amsoil and Kid's Furniture.

Jon Kilgore was the project manager for McCree. McCraney's team included Ben Kraljev, director of growth and development. Clark Stranahan of C4 Architecture performed the tenant built-out architecture for the project.

McCree was founded in Orlando in 1926, and for the last 88 years has been a family owned and operated business. It is Central Florida's oldest Design/Build firm. McCree has provided Construction Management at Risk and Design/Build services for numerous projects throughout the State of Florida and beyond. McCree utilizes an inclusive and diverse staff of general contractors, engineers, architects, and estimators to ensure that every aspect of design and construction is fully understood and handled with the highest degree of industry professionalism.
